HISTORICAL TRANSFORMATIONS & MODERNITIES, CLASS, AND THE CONTRADICTIONS OF GLOBALIZATION

BY KAJSA EKHOLM FRIEDMAN AND JONATHAN FRIEDMAN

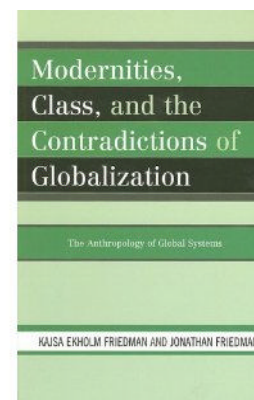

Historical Transformations

Historical Transformations represents the work of two distinguished anthropologists over three decades on the history and importance of global thinking in the social sciences. The authors consider numerous examples for which local phenomena can only be understood within the contexts of global systems. Their multidisciplinary work touches on many aspects of social and individual life as well as long-term historical processes.

Modernities, Class, and the Contradictions of Globalization

In Modernities, Class, and the Contradictions of Globalization, Friedman and Friedman look at how global processes have shaped the emergence of our dynamic and often difficult and contradictory modern world. The authors are particularly interested in structures that link individual human beings to more general social transformations. This book is a synthesis of the Friedmans' decades-long anthropological research into the human consequences—whether for good or bad—of globalization.
