

Programme

Thursday 5th of March

- 09h00-09h30 Welcome and Introduction
G rard B aur, Rosa Congost, Laurent Herment, Luigi Lorenzetti, Pablo F. Luna, Leen van Molle
- 09h30-12h30 The three paradigmatic patterns, Chair Luigi Lorenzetti.
- 09h30-10h00 The "English model" of agricultural development 1600-1850
Mark Overton, University of Exeter (United Kingdom)
- 10h00-10h30 Little farming. A way to resist to agrarian crisis (1850-1900)
Laurent Herment, CNRS-CRH. EHESS, France
- 11h00-11h30 Between the agrarian dualism: the example Saxony
Martina Schattkowsky, Institut f r S chsische Geschichte und Volkskunde, (German)
- 11h30-12h30 Discussant Pablo F. Luna, and General discussion
- Dinner
- 14h00-18h00 The diversity of growth in the long run
Chair Laurent Herment
- 14h00-14h30 Uncertainties of growth. Revisiting the French model of agricultural development in the European context
G rard B aur, CNRS & EHESS, CRH, (France), Jean-Michel Chevet, INRA (France)
- 14h30-15h00 Agrarian reform in Greece Revisited (1871-1928).
Historical conjuncture and literary representations of agrarian question
Catherine Bregianni, Academy of Athenes (Grece)
- 15h00-15h30 Discussant Discussant Luigi Lorenzetti
- Coffee Break
- 16h00-16h30 Agricultural Growth in Switzerland: mores, regional diversity and temporal differencies (17th-20th century)
Anne-Lise Head-K nig, Universit  de Gen ve (Switzerland)
- 16h30-17h00 Aggregate growth of output and average labour productivity in German agriculture, c. 1500-1875
Ulrich Pfister, University of M nster (Germany)
- 17h00-17h30 Discussant Luigi Lorenzetti, and General Discussion

Friday 6th of March

- 9h30-12h00 Some alternative models
Chair Gérard Béaur
- 9h30-10h00 A world of towns and countrysides.
Tuscany as a peculiar system of agrarian development, late XIV- XIX centuries
Giuliana Biagioli, University of Pisa (Italy)
- 10h00-10h30 Going back in time. Preconditions of the Danish growth path in the late 19th century:
resources and institutions
Ingrid Henriksen, University of Southern Denmark (Denmark)
- Coffee Break
- 11h00-11h30 Vines, corn and irrigation. The Routes of agricultural growth in Spain (XVIIth-XIXth centuries)
Llorenç Ferrer Alos, University of Barcelona (Spain)
- 11h30-12h Discussant Rosa Congost, and General discussion
- Dinner
- 14h00-18h00 The roots of growth (1), Institutions and market, Chair Rosa Congost
- 14h00-14h30 The Spanish agricultural growth: between the foreign market and domestic demand, 1800-2000
Vicente Pinilla, University of Zaragoza (Spain)
- 14h30-15h00 Developing unions : co-operatives and agricultural growth in France and Italy
during the first half of 20th century
Niccolò Mignemi, EHESS, CRH, Paris & Ecole française de Rome (France/Italy)
- 15h00-15h30 Discussant Laurent Herment
- Coffee Break
- 16h00-16h30 Land and water: the development of agriculture in the Dutch coastal provinces, 1500-1900
Piet van Cruyningen, University of Wageningen (Netherlands)
- 16h30-17h00 Discussant Laurent Herment, and General Discussion

Saturday 7th of March

- 09h00-12h30 The roots of growth (2), Property and landholding
Chair Pablo.F Luna
- 09h00-09h30 “Liberal” laws and property rights on land. The Spanish case in a comparative perspective
Rosa Congost, University of Girona (Spain)
- 09h30-10h00 Productivity, overproduction and enclosure in eighteenth-century England
Richard Hoyle, University of Reading (United Kingdom)
- Coffee Break
- 11h00-12h00 Discussant Gérard Béaur, and General Discussion
- 12h00-12h30 Conclusion Nadine Vivier
Final discussion and perspectives